How to find University Museum of Zoology

The Museum is located on the New Museums Site, right in the heart of Cambridge City Centre. Enter the site through the Pembroke Arch on Downing Street. Entrance to the Museum is via the Whale Hall, which has a step free access.

By train: Cambridge Station is a 20 minute, or 1.1 mile walk from the museum. Trains run frequently to London Kings Cross (55-minute journey time) and to other destinations. Taxis and buses run frequently from the station to the city centre.

For more information, please see <http://www.nationalrail.co.uk/>

By bus: The museum is a 5 minute or 500 metre walk from the main bus station at Drummer Street. For more information please see <https://www.cambridgeshire.gov.uk/residents/travel-roads-and-parking/buses/bus-timetables/>

By car: There is no visitor parking.

Cambridge City Centre is served by several Park and Ride sites, all of which have large car parks. For information about Park and Ride sites, please click here. <http://www.cambridgeparkandride.info/>

The nearest car park is the multi storey Grand Arcade car park, the entrance is on Corn Exchange Street. There is another car park, Queen Anne Terrace Car Park, which is a 13-minute walk
